

Journal of the National Association of Administrative Law Judiciary

Volume 2 | Issue 1

Article 9

3-15-1982

NAALJ News

Paul Wyler

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.pepperdine.edu/naalj>

Part of the Administrative Law Commons, and the Judges Commons

Recommended Citation

Paul Wyler, NAALJ News, 2 J. Nat'l Ass'n Admin. L. Judges. (1982) available at <http://digitalcommons.pepperdine.edu/naalj/vol2/iss1/9>

This NAALJ Business is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Law at Pepperdine Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of the National Association of Administrative Law Judiciary by an authorized administrator of Pepperdine Digital Commons. For more information, please contact Kevin.Miller3@pepperdine.edu.

NAALJ NEWS

J.F. McClanahan, who last year served as First Vice President of NAALJ, has extended the title of Administrative Law Judge to the Trial Examiners in his agency. Commissioner McClanahan is Chairman of the West Virginia Employment Security Board of Review.

The New York State Administrative Law Judges Association concluded a successful year with an Annual Meeting at the New York Grand Hyatt Hotel. The Honorable Arthur Markewich, Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, and a former contributor to this Journal, was featured speaker. Justice Markewich was presented with the New York Chapter's 1981 Distinguished Achievement Award.

At the same meeting, Judge Theodore Weinstein, outgoing President of the chapter, reported on the Association's substantial progress in obtaining salary grade reallocation for its members. Congratulations were extended to Honorable Karla Moskowitz, a former officer of the New York Chapter, upon her election to the New York City Civil Court. The New York Association appropriated $250 to the National Administrative Law Foundation. Judge David J. Agatstein was elected President of NYSALJA for 1981-1982.

* * * *

The President and Board of Governors of NAALJ extend their thanks to Hon. James McClimon, President of the Iowa Association, for his substantial help with the Journal in 1981, and to Hon. William Vandiveer of New York, the Association's volunteer calligrapher.

* * * *

The Specialization Committee of the Section of Administrative Law of the American Bar Association has concluded that the field of administrative law does not lend itself to enforceable definition as a speciality. The report of the Specialization Committee was accepted by the Section Council at its annual meeting, according to the most recent issue of the Administrative Law News.

* * * *

Please send items of interest to the Editor.